Across the fields of waving grain: VEZELAY with its 12-century basilica, towers on a 1000-foot plateau. 140 miles from Paris.

a World in Itself

France

a Magic World of Beauty and Variety, of Strange and Interesting Sights . . . Of Old Customs, Warm Hospitality

Hasn't the time come to take that long-anticipated holiday in France? If you plan now, you'll find it easier to get choice reservations. Your travel agent* can make all arrangements. And we'll gladly give advice, send booklets, literature.

AN OUTDOOR RESTAURANT IN PARIS

Paris, as always, is one gay whirl. 1951 is her 2000th birthday, and a gala year it will be—with all sorts of pageantry and special events. The nightlife of Paris is fabulous! Take, or rent, a car and penetrate the lovely provinces. Trains and buses are comfortable, convenient. France offers everything—arts and culture, scenic beauty, every sport . . . wondrous shopping. Life is full in France, whenever you come.

A BRETON "PARDON"

THE ARC DE TRIOMPHE, PARIS

You'll love to discover forgotten villages, to poke into medieval ruins, to stand in awe before architectural marvels of the ages. And everywhere is warm hospitality.

*Your travel agent handles reservations, etc., without extra charge.
For information, booklets, write H6, Box 221, New York 10.
